Re: Giuffre v. Maxwell
Case No. 15-cv-07433-RWS

Dear Laura,

The earliest-dated email communication Defendant produced was from July 18, 2009. Accordingly, there is a 10 year gap in email data from your production (from 1999-2009). You have represented that Defendant used neither the [REDACTED] account nor the [REDACTED] to communicate (email addresses that were taken by police from Epstein's home in 2005). If this is correct, logic dictates that Defendant used a different email account to communicate from 1999-2009. Defendant has not indicated what email account she used from 1999-2009 to communicate. Therefore, I am writing to ask what email account Defendant used to communicate from 1999-2009, since she claims that the accounts listed with her contact information from the police collection were not used to communicate.

Sincerely,

Meredith Schultz
